Sir:

This is in response to the Examiner's amendment dated November 27, 2006. The purpose of this amendment is to provide clean copy of the claims as already amended by the Examiner in that Examiner's amendment. The key problem noticed by applicant's attorney is that the Examiner's handwriting in claim 1 could be misread. It should be "non-DC" on lines 5 and 12. This response includes no changes from the Examiner's amendment. Therefore there is no underlining or line out.

A payment for the issue fee is due with this response. The issue fee transmittal and a check are enclosed.
